

Job Description
093-002-PVE
FINANCE DIRECTOR (m/f)

THE COMPANY

Market leader in the rental of powered access equipment, part of an international European company, leading in rental equipment with more than 7000 employees (in Germany: 300), turnover more than 50 million Euros, located in North Rhine-Westphalia.

THE POSITION

Finance Director (m/f), reporting directly to Managing Director, part of the management team, statutory power of attorney (Prokura), head of the finance and accounting department consisting of three teams (accounting, controlling and IT) and insurance, receivables management, used-machines, leading a staff of 12 - 14 persons, attractive salary.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE

Has a university degree in finance or economics, demonstrates a solid track record with proven, verifiable experience of finance and accounting, is compliant with statutory regulations, accounting and financial reporting standards, has a good IT-knowledge, knowledge of international accounting standards, working experience with several years in a similar position preferably in a company with technical related products and services, solid understanding of financial reporting and financial processes in an international environment, fluent in English and German, French language-skills would be of advantage.

CONTACT

You are interested to learn more? Please contact us or send your application including your compensation requirements by email to pventhien@converitas.de. Your application will be treated strictly confidential. For further questions please contact Peter Venthien by phone: 040 35085880. We look forward to receiving your message.

ConVeritas GmbH
Postraße 33
20354 Hamburg